Our Vision

Let's talk about wording

Our next book talk topic is 'What have you enjoyed reading over half term?' Get talking at home about books you are enjoying through the week. The children and staff will be sharing their thoughts on the school book talk display and in classrooms when we come back.

Big Cat Collins Books

A little reminder to practice reading for Key Stage 1 children and Reception children. If you are having problems accessing books or need paper copies please speak to your teachers.

The City of Norwich Aviation Museum

Fox Class enjoyed a very informative day at the City of Norwich Aviation Museum this term. Here are a few pictures of their day.

Aylsham Swim Academy

Good luck and best wishes to Mrs Smith

Mrs Smith, who will be leaving us today to start her maternity leave. Best wishes from us all to her and her family at this exciting time.

Miss Harris will be covering Mrs Smith's maternity leave in Rec/Year 1 and we wish her good luck and welcome her to our school.

Aylsham Man Shed

Do you enjoy... Making & mending stuff?
Community projects?
Using your creative skills?
A chat and a good laugh?

Come and join us for all this and more!

Aylsham District Men's Shed

Men's Sheds are about social connections and friendship building, sharing skills and knowledge, and of course a lot of laughter! Sheds get involved in community projects too – find out more at www.menssheds.org.uk

Plans are underway to get a Men's Shed up and running in Aylsham. If you'd like to get involved, or maybe even help in setting it up, we'd love to hear from you! Thanks to a partnership with The Aylsham Community Trust (Families) a venue has already been found! But help with tools, funding, training also welcome!

Do you have skills, talents, energy and humour to spare? Come and share them – but you can just come for a brew and a chat if you'd rather!

Come and find out more on Saturday 19th November, 10.00am at Aylsham High School. Please park in the Bure Meadows school car park, Palmston Way, Aylsham NR11 6FN. Our volunteers will be in this car park to direct you.
