School Attendance Campaign

Attendance at school is really important for children - please avoid booking holidays in term time, not only does this disrupt your child's learning but may also bring a fine.

www.justonenorfolk.nhs.uk/attendance

- Every day at school adds up, so make the most of it.
- Remember, if you've got tests this year, being at school as much as possible is important. Every day adds up and will help you get the grades you want.
- Every day at school counts, helping with learning, developing skills, and building friendships.
