Our Vision

Message from Mrs Board

We've made it!!! Have a wonderful summer holidays everyone. A huge thank you to all our wonderful staff for all of your hard work throughout the year- you are what makes our school amazing! Goodbye to our leavers- we wish you all the best on your own personal journeys.

See you in September!

Archery Day

The children really enjoyed learning Archery on Monday 7th July. They really got into the Robin Hood spirit for our KS2 performers.

YR5/6 Class trip to Gressenhall

The children had lots of fun visiting Gressenhall and got into the WW2 spirit. They learnt how people lived and coped during the war.

Presentation of Learning

Thank you to everyone that attended our Presentation of Learning on Friday 18th July. The children had a great morning full of fun activities, thank you to all the parents that gave them loads of support and encouragement.

Eat with your child day

Eat with your child day went really well and thank you for all the parents, carers, grandparents, aunts and uncles that attended. The children also enjoyed meeting 'Mr Nourish' himself.

YR6 Leavers Trip to Pleasurewood Hills

The YR6 pupils really enjoyed their annual trip to Pleasurewood Hills.

Thank you again to the Friends of Hevingham Primary School and Hevingham Under 5's for contributing for this trip to enable our YR6's to attend.

Tots 2 Teens

Please see poster below regarding Tots 2 Teens activity happening over the summer holiday.

House Cup Winners

Congratulations to Silver Birch for winning this year's trophy! Well done for all your hard work and dedication throughout the year following our school values to be awarded enough points to win. Well done to all of the other houses as it was a close race!

YR6 Leavers

The YR6 leavers had a fun time going round the whole school saying goodbye while doing the conga! We will miss them all, but wish them all the best at high school. 😊
